Packet of printed detailed instructions from The Poor Law Commissioners to the Guardians of the Poor one to come into force on 6th March 1846. It is concerned with the organisation of Workhouses, the treatment of those entering the House, the work & responsibilities of the Master & Mistress and other employees. The division of men, women, children and tramps who enter the House, their clothing, food, medical treatment and punishment to be meted out when there are behavioural problems. A second page of instructions are concerned with the payments made to Guardians in Poor Law Unions. In both cases they include Chipping Norton Union and are signed by Geo. Nicholls; George Cornwall Lewis; Edmund W. Head.

Instructions to Poor Law Overseers came from the Clerk of the Peace of Oxford, John M. Davenport dated 26th June 1845. They are concerned with preparing a list of those who consider themselves eligible to be voters on the raising of rates. It details where notices of the names are to be displayed in the parish. There are two other printed letters concerning the lists, one dated June 1845 and the other from County Hall, Oxford dated June 1847.

Packet of handwritten notices stating that a rate of 1s in the pound has been allowed by the J.Ps.

The wording in all of these is the same and presumably it is what was exhibited on the doors of local Churches and Chapels – ‘Parish of Milton, to wit} Notice is hereby given that a Rate of one shilling in the Pound for the necessary Relief of the Poor of this Parish and for other purposes chargeable thereon according to law was made on the 15th Day of April and duly allowed by two of Her Majesty’s Justices of the Peace in and for the County of Oxford on the 16th Day of April 1845’

For Milton there are four, two in 1845, one raised 15th April [paper torn here so no date given when allowed or signed], raised 25th July, allowed 26th July and signed the same day, both signed by Thomas Peartree and Anthony Gardner, Overseers; one raised 10th January, allowed 12 January 1850 and signed by Richard Gilbert and Philip Herbert, Overseers on the same day. One raised 22nd April 1851, allowed and signed by Elizabeth Ellis and John Dalton, Overseers on the same day. One raised 11th May, allowed 12th and signed 16th May 1852 by John Foden and William Gilson, Overseers.

The wording of Shipton's notices is the same as for Milton. For Shipton there are five notices. One for the 30th July but with no year given and signed by Robert Franklin and Stephen Reynolds. Three are for 1845 – one raised 11th April, allowed 16th and signed on 19th by Robert Spencer, Overseer and John Smith and Thos Brookes, Churchwardens; the next raised on 25th July, allowed on 26th and signed on the same day by the same Overseer and Churchwardens as above; the next raised 29th October, allowed 1st November and signed on the same day by Robert Spencer and John Smith, Overseers and Thos Young and John Smith, Churchwardens. Lastly one raised on 7th June 1852, allowed 12th June and signed on the same day by William Baylis and Rob. Franklin, Overseers

One rate is raised, allowed and signed on 19th February 1842 by John Fletcher and Benjamin Shepherd. No parish is given but it will be for the old Shipton parish, it is dated before villages had their own parishes.

A book detailing payments to Mr Coombs for building supplies and work.

Copy of Rules and Orders to be Observed in a Friendly Society, Established the sixth day of May, 1811 and held at the House of John Smith known by the Sign of the Crown at Shipton under Wychwood in the County of Oxford. This society is Established for the purpose of raising and supporting a Stock or fund to aid and assist each other on just and reasonable occasions, when sick, maimed, or superannuated, to bury their dead, and to promote and encourage peace, love, and unity. Mr William Coombs became a member 7th Feb 1848.

Printed by J. Shayler, Bookseller etc of Witney.

A packet of booklets & papers detailing the work given the various workmen such as measuring of land, hoeing, ploughing etc with areas to be covered. In some cases the length and breadth of the land is written with the area. With many of the figures and sums in the booklets it is impossible to know what they mean. Some of the booklets & papers are not in good condition and are written in pencil some feint. Where they are readable transcription is below. It is difficult to know exactly what the entries mean but it looks as if the numbers besides the names are of the fields on the tithe maps.

This information is in a booklet showing his measurements & breadths and lengths of the acreages.

Miscellaneous notes scattered in the papers, no dates are given.

Mr Bould to S. Eatwell – Thatching 22ft; Mr Wakfield – Thatching 5½ square

Wm Pegler – 1216 of Hedging, 3 Lead of thorn £1 10s 0d & carriage 18s.

Mr Hubbard – 582 of Hedging, 1 load of Thorne 11s & 20 dozen stakes 11s 8d

Mr Bould to Simon Eatwell thatching the house in the occupation of John Harris - 7½ square @ - per square

There are many pencilled entries in the books and papers of land measurements by length, breadth and acres, poles and perches. There are also some jottings of money but in neither of the above cases is there any indication of what was being measured, who farmed the land or was employed on it. Neither what the money was for paid or who it was paid to is easy to work out. It is also difficult to understand Richard Crosses's position in all the transactions he was involved in both measuring and listing of people employed. Much is around the time of the Tithe Computation, 1839 and well before the Enclosures of 1854. He does appear as parish clerk in a couple of places.

In some of the booklets Richard Cross has written down a list of names with numbers attached, the names are not the same in each list. There are no dates given, names are as spelt. Booklet no.1 A = first page; B = second page; no.2 = C a small piece of paper; no.3 = D with names and numbers only a list in another booklet. no.4 = E a list in another booklet headed Shipton with no 'Chs' and '4' in the final column.

Musical items in the Richard Cross collection

With the Richard Cross papers is an Ophicleide. The dictionary definition of the instrument as given as:- 'a keyed wind instrument developed from the serpent, a bass or alto key bugle'. With it is a note from Mrs Avery that is belonged either to Richard Cross the elder or John Coombes both of Shipton.

There is a small printed booklet about 7" by 4", the first two pages of which have two handwritten pieces of music one of which is headed 'Psalm 26 for the Holy Sacrament'. The third page is printed and is headed with 'A BOOK of PSALMODY'. There is some scribbling on the pages.

It follows with 'Containing Instructions for Young Beginners after as plain & familiar a manner as yet Extant.

To which is added a Collection of Psalm tunes and Anthems together with some Hymns and Canons the whole Compos'd for 3 to 4 voices.

O praise ye Lord for ye Lord is gracious: ) sing praises unto his Name for it is lovely. Psalm 135. Sing ye praises with Understanding. Psalm 47.

Collected Engrav'd and Printed by Mich Beesly and sold by Edward Doe Book-seller in Oxford by Thos Price Book-seller in Gloucester, and by John Edmund at Winchester. Price 3-6

Next there is a poem 'To all Lovers of Psalmody' followed by instructions about learning music, the 'Gamut or Scales, notes such as quavers, tone or sound of notes with examples of tuning the voice, beating or keeping time and the keys. Then follows various psalms with their names but no words e.g. psalm 2 – Cambridge tune; psalm 40 – Newbury tune with the Veni Creator, Te Deum and Benediction. The psalms following have words with them and again their names are given e.g. psalm 75 – Worcester tune; psalm 125 – Cheively tune; finally there are anthems, a Morning Hymn given as 'A Canon Two in One' and an Evening Hymn.

At the end of the printed music is more handwritten music for psalms and anthems with instruction e.g. 'Basses to ye 138 Begin at ye 6 verse'. Several comments and handwritten words appear on many pages. There is a page covered with writing which is difficult to read being so faded but some of it says 'Samuell Boorman of the County of Midd..... is a mocker and strong drinkis ... ..' this is repeated several times and at the bottom of the page is 'William Cross His Book ... .. 1759'. There are three loose pages of handwritten music including one for 'Lead Kindly Light'.

There are loose sheets of music of various sizes most have on them 'Ophicleide'. Many of the sheets have the name of the piece as follows:-
